

INSTITUTIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

INTERNATIONAL GRADUATE PROGRAMS for EDUCATORS

Providing graduate level education for teachers and administrators at International Schools throughout the globe since 1998

- Since 1998, over 3,000 educators in school sites worldwide have earned a Master's Degree in Multidisciplinary Studies
- Focused on providing targeted courses from Education, Educational Leadership, Educational Technology, Exceptional Education, English as a Second Language, Social and Psychological Foundations, and Creativity Studies to meet the needs of International educators.
- Increased Buffalo State's global footprint by 56 cohorts at sites in 38 countries
- Graduate credit through the School of Education for Professional Development is delivered at 11 international regional teacher conferences throughout the year as well as through 75 workshops in 20 countries
- 30 core full time and adjunct Buffalo State instructors with vast expertise in international education deliver courses primarily at school sites around the globe.
- The average completion time for the MS in Multidisciplinary Degree is 2.5 years

igpe.buffalostate.edu